ABSTRACT

AUTOMOBILE DEALERSHIP & SERVICES

Mobile applications are the most affordable and effective way to reach out to customers these days. Using mobile applications is the trend now. So, developers always try to provide the best solution that makes your life more comfortable. There are millions of mobile applications being launched every day. This mobile application allows mechanics to locate the vehicle which is damaged. The motivation behind initiating this project is to make the user to get the mechanics where their vehicle damaged. The application assists people to locate the damaged vehicle. The application also helps to sell our old vehicles and also user can renew their insurance. For a business, one needs to keep assigning the nearest mechanics for repairing damaged vehicle. The application is useful in a scenario which helps peoples when they get difficulty with their vehicle. Thus, basically by using this system user can efficiently use this system by saving their time.